ALLIED FORMATION
YOU MAY FIELD
ONE WARSAW PACT FORMATION AS AN ALLIED FORMATION

You can take an Allied Formation as part of your Force. An Allied Formation obeys all the rules for its own nationality. An Allied Formation Commander can only join Units in its own Formation and only its Formation Units can benefit from its Command Leadership (see page 25 and 64 of the rulebook). An Allied Formation does not count as a Formation when counting how many Formations are left when determining if you have lost the game (see page 65 of the rulebook).
